

Study Education with us.

Get a head start on your teaching career as part of your QCE studies!

Study a Certificate III in Education (Aboriginal and Torres Strait Islander) 10324NAT with TAFE Queensland North through RATEP, an Indigenous community-based teacher education program operated in liaison with DET and JCU.

From 2017, TAFE Queensland North is offering all Indigenous senior high school students (Years 11 and 12) around Queensland the chance to gain a Certificate III in Education (Aboriginal and Torres Strait Islander) via a new 'off site' model of delivery.

The course offers a direct pathway to becoming a fully qualified primary school teacher, especially in relation to (but not exclusively for) Indigenous education contexts.

- Eight points towards your QCE
- To be fully funded by 'VET in Schools' program (no cost to student or school)
- One or two year study options available
- Online and paper-based materials
- Daily access to a full time qualified distance teacher
- Gain a nationally-recognised qualification while at high school
- Provides credit towards higher qualifications in education
